Letter No 7291 ²⁵³ 23/2/04 from the S. of Govt, in Mysore

The S. of Govt states that the Adhyaksha of the college has applied for the increase of grant in order to meet the following additional needs —

- (1) To appoint a peon on Rs 6 in place of the Sweeper on Rs 2 now attached to the college.*
- (2) To increase the library grant from Rs 5 to Rs 10 a month for getting good books from Northern India.*
- (3) To raise the Scholarships in the Shashtra and Sahitya classes which are at present very low.*

- (4) To appoint a new teacher for giving lessons in astrology
- (5) To give promotions to certain deserving and hardworked ~~officers~~ teachers of the college
- (6) To increase the contingent ~~grant~~ charges which are at present insufficient

He also adds that very useful work is done in nearly all the Shastras at a moderate cost and that the increase asked for is quite deserved. In these circumstances he recommends that the increased grant may be sanctioned from 1st July 1904-

The additional cost involved is Rs 30 per mensem or Rs 360 per annum & if sanctioned will have to be included in the Budget for 1904-1905

The Lgl has now submitted a statement showing how the present grant of Rs 170 is being spent and how the proposed increase will be utilized

The College is solely is obtained from the Govt grant It has no other source of income

The several increases of grant sanctioned to the College from time to time are noted below —

Increase Sanctioned	From what Date
From Rs 60 to 73 —	from 1 st July 1889
" Rs 73 to 103 —	" 1 st July 1897
" Rs 103 to 125 —	" do - 1899
" Rs 125 to 150 —	" do 1900
" Rs 150 to 170 —	" do 1901

Instead of appointing a new teacher for giving lessons in astrology as first proposed, the I & G now propose to give increases to each of the Pandits who are teaching the elementary portions of the Subject and make them teach the higher portions also

As it was already observed by the councillor that the present grant is liberal enough a draft deeming to sanction the increase is put up-

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that the Adhyaksha of the Sanskrit College at Melkote has applied for an increase of grant from Rs 170 to Rs 200 a month in order to meet the following additional needs of the College

- 1 To appointment of a peon on Rs 6 in place of the Sweeper on Rs 2 now attached to the College
- 2 To increase the Library grant of the College from Rs 5 now set apart from the whole grant in-aid of the College to Rs 10 a month, so that good books may be ordered from Northern India.
- 3 To raise the rates of scholarships which are at present very low in the Shashtra and Sahitya Classes
- 4 To strengthen the teaching staff of the College by the appointment of an Astrological teacher who will ^{sup} lessons to students in astrology

- 5 To give Promotions to certain deserving and hardworked teachers of the College
- 6 To set apart a larger amount for the Contingent charges of the College as the Adhyaksha has to carry on much correspondence on matters relating to the College and considerable expense is incurred in the shape of postage.

I have great pleasure in recommending the increase of the grant-in-aid of the College from Rs 170 to Rs 200 a month with effect from 1st July 1904 - Very useful work is done in nearly all the Shastras in the College at a moderate cost and I consider the increase asked for is quite deserved.

Offy Secretary to the Government of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments, Bangalore

Sir,

With reference to your docket no 4283 dated 29th February 1904 asking for certain additional information about the Sai Shukh College at Melkote, I have the honour to submit that the College is solely maintained from the grant paid to it by the Department. It has no other sources of income. The last increase of grant sanctioned to the College was in October 1901 by Government Order no 6825-6 of 28th October 1901. The accompanying statement will show how the present grant is being spent and how the proposed increase will be utilised. The only change made in the proposal is that instead of appointing a new teacher for teaching astrology in its higher branches the Adhyaksh

Inspector General - intends to give an increase to each of the Pandits who are teaching the elementary portions of the subject and to make them teach the advanced portions also. I once more request that Government may be pleased to raise the grant of the College from Rs 170 to 200/- a month with effect from 1st July 1904 as proposed already in my letter no 7091 dated 3rd February 1904
